Art Swartz, Torrance Baseball Club manager, drove in three of the four local tallies.

Only two other hits came off the Torrance bats, a smashing two-bagger by Cal Barnes and a line single by young Leonard Swartz, who caught the first five frames for the Swartz-men.

The Torrance club, no longer playing under the Signal Oilers name, will continue to play at the local park and will have a team entered in the coming winter league competition, according to manager Art Swartz. The team at present is un-sponsored but Manager Swartz is hoping to have a sponsor before league play begins.

The Torrance club will face another of the Southern California semi-pro teams, as yet unknown, Sunday afternoon at 2:15.

Torrance C. of C. Endorses Move For Big Leagues

The Torrance Chamber of Commerce this week passed a resolution endorsing the action of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce in its resolution seeking the establishment of major league baseball in Los Angeles.

The resolution, also adopted by the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce and submitted to all chambers of commerce in the county, sets forth reasons why big league baseball should be brought to the Pacific Coast and especially to Los Angeles.

Among the reasons cited was the large population of the Metropolitan Los Angeles area, and the interest of the population in outdoor sports, both as participants and spectators.

Mexican West Point To Open Loyola Grid Year

Loyola University of Los Angeles has announced the signing of a two-year, home-and-home agreement with Colegio Militar de Mexico, the West Point military academy of Mexico.

The contest, providing Los Angeles with its first international football game since the end of the war, will be played this year in Los Angeles, with the Lions traveling to Mexico City next year.

Coming as the initial game for Bill Sargent, Loyola's new coach the agreement was described by Francisco Villagren, Consul General of Mexico in Los Angeles, as another manifestation of the Mexico-U.S. "good neighbor" policy.

The game will be held at Gilmore Stadium on Sunday, Sept. 28.

45 Try Out For Team As Torrance High Football Practice Opens

Football practice got underway this week at Torrance High with 45 men reporting for practice. The first day was marked by a four-hour session for the players.

Eddie Cole, new Tartar coach, assisted by Cliff Graybehl, head basketball coach and Bee football coach, put his players through a series of calisthenics designed to take out the summer kinks and then introduced them to the semi-T formation that the team will use this season.

With players alternating at the two sections, Cole taught them the basic plays of his system and each ran through these plays. At the close of the practice, each squad was familiar with eight plays.

After dividing the group into various positions, the teams ran through signal drills in preparation for the actual contact work that is slated to start at the end of this week. Time was also allotted at the first drill to hitting the dummies in blocking and tackling drills.

The first casualty of the season showed up on opening day with little Corky Donnel bruising his knee. Gene Stirling and Albert Stevenson, good tacklers, missed the opening days because of summer employment, but are expected back soon.

Scrimmage Set For El Camino Football Squad

With more than a week of practice behind them, Amby Schindler's football hopefuls at El Camino JC are looking forward to the scrimmage and contact work that is scheduled for the latter part of this week.

The rough parts of the practice sessions were held up by a lack of equipment, but with pads and helmets arriving, the King's Men should be able to get in shape for their opening game against Ventura JC on Sept. 27.

Four full teams were running through signals early this week with the rest of the 81-man squad standing in as alternates in the various positions.

Schindler has several good ex-high school players around which he can build his eventual starting line-up. Just who will make up the starting 11, Amby wouldn't say until after he has seen the boys in action in scrimmage.

Several of the prep stars who are expected to do big things are Clarence Witt, a good ball-handler and signal caller who played for the Redondo Seawhaws during their last three seasons. The Carne brothers, Fred and Jim, are also veterans of the Redondo squad.

Ralph Hornbrook played for Gardena High and halfback Dick Contreras is a big, fast halfback from Marshall. Both of these players look like good bets for a starting spot, but as Schindler said, nothing is definite until after the team gets some scrimmaging behind them.

Torrance Boat Entered In Race Carnival Sunday

Headlined by the return to Southern California competition of L.A. Pennington, Santa Monica, and his class "E" runaway champion, Copper Head, one of the greatest all-inboard racing championships of the season, a speedboat racing carnival, will be staged at the Long Beach Marine stadium at 1 p.m. Sunday.

High spot of the program, which will include two five-mile heat races for each of five divisions of inboard racing craft, several exhibitions, a match race, and novelty acts, will be the action in the 135-cubic inch field, which is without a doubt the fastest small design class in the world. They have been doing nearly 90 miles an hour on the straightaways in recent competition.

Between races novelty acts will be staged by the Lake Elsinore Ski club with stunts and jumps. "Malcolm Neal, Torrance, with his boat, "P.U." is one of the featured entries in the Class "E" runaway field in the regatta. He has one of the fastest craft in the division.

Sleppy Posts Top Score At Pebble Beach Opening

Ray Sleppy, Torrance golfer, paced the field at the National Amateur meet at Pebble Beach with a sensational two under par 70 to defeat his first round opponent, Film Star Randolph Scott, Hollywood, 7 and 8.

Ray's mighty card was equalled only by former Amateur Champion Marvin "Bud" Ward, Spokane, and Frank Stranahan, Toledo Ohio, the reigning favorite to cop this year's crown.

Sleppy was scheduled to take on Ernest Pieper Jr., San Jose another survivor from the opening play but without the sensational score to match the local boy.

The overloaded field of 210 qualifiers played all day and into dusk without completing the opening round, with many of the matches having to be postponed until the next day for completion.

In the second round at Pebble Beach, Sleppy shot a 76, sinking an 18-foot birdie putt on the 19th hole to defeat his opponent, Ernest Pieper, San Jose, one up. Ray's third round opponent is Maurice McCarthy, Cincinnati, who shot a par 72 in the second round of play.

Freddie Negrete Heads Amateur Show Friday

One of the greatest lightweight fighters in more than two decades from the Harbor area, Freddie Negrete of Wilmington, whose workmanlike fights of the past few months have earned him many followers, will headline the amateur boxing show at the Wilmington Bowling tomorrow night.

Freddie, back in shape after his recent layoff which set him back nearly two months in training, will tackle hard-knocking Johnny Turner of Long Beach in the feature attraction of another well-balanced card under sponsorship of promoter-matchmaker Joe Craig.

Turner gave indications of making it kinda rough for Negrete when he blasted aside a worthy rival by kayo in the third on last week's special event.

Tito Garcia of Santa Ana, a power-punching welter from Orange County, and Art Brown of Long Beach clash in the semi-windup, while the special event, which heads another strong supporting show starting at 8:30 p.m., finds clever little George Jaquet, baby-faced 110-pounder, against Bill Mayo.

Drix, Lion Cubs Tackle Oxnard Teams Again

Torrance softball teams will have a chance to avenge a twin shellacking suffered last month in Oxnard when the Drix Soap Products team and the Lions Cubs take on two Oxnard squads Saturday afternoon at the Torrance park.

Lions Cubs meet Oxnard Junior Merchants in the preliminary starting at 6:30 and Drix tackles Nason's Druggist in a contest scheduled for 8:15.

Last year the home and home series found a local team and an Oxnard team breaking even in the two-game series.

Jack Van Pelt, manager of the Drix team which emerged on top of the Torrance Industrial Softball league, says he is definitely out to "bring home the bacon."

In the Aug. 16 games at Oxnard, Drix was beaten 5-2 while the Lion Cubs went down 4-2.

Drix will have its full squad ready for the invaders Saturday. The first game of the series was played minus the services of several key players.

Apaches Defeat Stars As Play Enters Last Week

Play in the Pee Wee division of the Torrance Recreational summer softball league went into its final week with the leading Apaches almost a cinch to cop the crown.

The Apaches clubbed out a 16-1 decision over the Stars to assure a spot in the final encounter Saturday.

The Apaches meet the hitherto winless Seawhaws.

Should the Apaches lose, however, play would probably end in a tie as the Drix Jrs. remained near the top with a 14-4 win over the Black Yankees.

All season scoring records were pushed off the books when the Walteria Warriors blasted the Grizzlies 35 to 3.

Other scores during the past week's competition were as follows: Black Yankees 21, Woodraft Rangers 20, and Grizzlies 21, Seawhaws 6.

A single game in the Midget Division saw the Mahar club pound out a 9-2 win over the Lion Cubs.

Sport Shop

By ARNOLD YELLIN and STAN PIERSON

Welcome to Sports Shop. As we swing open the doors for the first time, we want you to know that you are always welcome here. As our stock in trade, we have information and news of the goings-on in the world of sports, both local and national. And remember, we have nothing for sale. Just come in and browse around.

We're going to try and keep you posted on some of the local boys who have gone on in their march to the top of the sporting scene. We'll present sidelights on the local athletic events in which you might be interested.

We've a lot of facts, both pertinent and impertinent, at our fingertips, so if you have anything that is bothering you, just shoot us a line; we may be able to help you out. If you want to know how many points Joe Doaks rang up for ole PU or what team and where they try us, we might just happen to know.

Take the up and coming football season, for example. We had a chat with Eddie Cole at Torrance High the other day about football in general. It was our first meeting with the new Tartar coach and he was looking forward to the season.

Eddie pulled out his book marked "top secret," which contains the diagrams for the semi-T formation his boys are going to use this fall. It looks like the Tartars are going to be mighty tricky; the formation has all the power of the single wing and the deception of the straight T.

Not that we're skeptical, but the formation is a new one on us and we'll know a lot more about how it's going to work after Torrance meets Covina in a practice game on Sept. 28.

We'll see you out there.

Also took a look at Amby Schindler's boys working through signal drills. El Camino men are running through their practice at Leuzinger High, and if quality means anything, the J. C. team should be going great guns. Eighty-one footballers showed up for practice and their ages range from 17 to 26. There must be some men there with more than high school experience and even with those who have only prep ball behind them, there are some big names.

Like Wayne Clifford, who was an all-city back at Venice High. And then there's Bill Bynum, a baseball player from Torrance High who is trying out at full and looks like he's got the stuff. Dallas Martin, an all-Marine league tackle in '45 at Torrance, is another local boy trying out under Schindler's wing, as is Marklyn Groves, halfback from Narbonne, a good ball-toter whose injuries kept him from really going to town.

Ambling Ambrose, as he was known as in his hey day at S. C., will be running plays from the T formation as he learned it at college, and if the boys can look like Southern Cal when Schindler was calling them, they should go great guns. He even pointed out that he had one lad on the squad who was with the frosh over there last year.

Though the football season is with us, there are other events that are worth looking into these days, too. Last week I spent an evening at the Culver City track watching those midgets go 'round and 'round.

This boy Gib Lilly was burning up the track out there, especially in the feature event of 50 laps when he started last in position 15 and ended up fourth when the smoke cleared away.

Just before the intermission preceding the main event, Keenan Wynn drove out onto the track in one of the big cars that race at Carrell's in Gardena. And a sleek job it was, too; I'm going to have to take in the speedway to see these big boys roll.

The car that Wynn drove out was one that had finished fourth one year in the Indianapolis 500-miler and it looked like it had plenty of horsepower under its hood. When those babies start to roll up around 150 p.m., it must be some sight to see.

But let's get back to football for a while. Keeping tab on the bigger things, we find that Bill Parton and Jim Jackson are at San Jose State. Parton, a speedster who played on the Torrance Tartars in 1941 and '42, was voted the outstanding back in spring practice up north.

Jackson got his football experience in the Navy and was first-string quarterback last year on the Spartan outfit that lost only one game. He's out to win another letter at the signal-calling spot again this year.

Getting a little closer to home, the Compton J. C. roster shows three Torrance footballers and at least one from Lomita so far. Coach Tay Brown had 117 men out for the squad which is a lot more than at some schools a lot bigger.

Among this large array of pigskin-pushers were George Winters and Dick Leech. Winters played for the Tartars in '44 and saw a lot of action last year on the team that took the National Junior College championship. Leech is getting back to the gridiron after a long lay-off and is trying for a spot up front in the forward wall.

Danny Moon, better known as a basketball player at Torrance, is trying to duplicate his skill with a football this year. Then there's big Paul Biller, all-Marine end with Narbonne in '42, who's out for one of the wing spots at Compton.

And Jay Stroh, second string All-Marine for Torrance last year is out for the Frosh at Loyola.

The baseball season is folding with the Angels looking like a
